DURING THE EXAM WHILE ENTERING THE EXAM ROOM

Switch off your mobile phone, including all alarms and other sounds, switch off other electronic devices as well, including alarms in your watch.

Leave your mobile phone and other prohibited items (e.g. books, bags etc.) in an area designated by a member of the test personnel (Invigilator).

You may bring in a bottle of water, but place it on the floor next to your table to avoid any accidents.

After you have taken your place you will be asked to present the right document to prove your identity as the candidate who registered for the test.

A member of the exam personnel (Invigilator) will hand out exam sheets (and in some cases answer sheets and/or rough draft paper).

If your name printed on the exam sheet was misspelled, report this to a member of the exam personnel immediately.

A member of the IELTS test personnel (Supervisor) will give you detailed instructions to each part of the test. Listen to them carefully and if you have any questions regarding the procedure ask them right away.

ONCE THE EXAM STARTS

Read instructions on the cover of the exam sheet (and the answer sheet if you received it).

Do not open the exam sheet until you are asked to do so by a member of the IELTS test personnel (Invigilator). You will be informed about the time allotted for each component of the test. Make sure you answer all the questions in the time given, because there will be no additional time to transfer the answers.

You are to use a pencil to fill in the answer sheets in the Listening and Reading and Writing parts.

During the Listening part the test is broken down into sections and the recording includes all necessary pauses and instructions to candidates. Each section is played twice.

During the Reading and Writing part you are to use a pencil, you have to complete the test in the allotted time.
